

Dear Sixth Grade Parents,

There has been some confusion about how field day is different for sixth grade, and we would like to clarify this for all parents. This is a day that celebrates our sixth graders, in all of their accomplishments and goals as graduating Crusaders. We celebrate our sixth grade by giving complimentary t-shirts, food, water bottles, candy, and games! Sixth graders do not need to purchase tickets! We also give them their own tent to eat chick fil a and take a break! This year, we are bringing in another obstacle course for them to battle on! A day to celebrate their accomplishments and seniority in our school, we look forward to celebrating them.

All of that to say, we give to our sixth graders in a way that we feel necessary to shower them with food and decorations and games to provide a wonderful experience at their final school-wide event, while still being mindful of expenditures for our Crusader Club. We have a chair that will decorate the sixth grade tent and make it look fabulous and exciting for our students! We know many moms want to contribute, and we thank you for your willingness, but only our chair will be reimbursed from the Crusader Club for the decoration expenses. At the end of the day we represent our Kingdom school in a humble manner, and unannounced receipts will not be reimbursed. We are confident our 6th grade tent chair will make it phenomenal! We also have a balloon chair that will decorate with balloons at all the tents. And a super decorative chair making a photo backdrop for all of field day near the entrance.

Sixth graders often go all out dressing up for the theme, either the class theme or the USA field day theme. Feel free to go crazy with face paint, hair spray, etc. The sixth grade tshirts will be red, white, and blue tie-dye!

We are so excited FPDS will once again be parading through the neighborhood to Belhaven University. A first and last for the sixth graders. We can't wait to see them parading.

Thank you so much,
Field Day Chairs
